

BLUE*STAR IS NOW READY
June 7, 2012

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

As you know I blog almost every day, hopefully with something of interest to you at least once in a while. I have seldom even mentioned the professional astrological software that I (and my team) author, so I hope you will take the time to consider our new Blue*Star program. It is a new concept, a software program written for those who know nothing about astrology.

Blue*Star is designed for laptops, and for astrologers on the go. It does not do everything a large astrology program does, but it does what most astrologers need. It also has two distinct modes, a first of its kind.

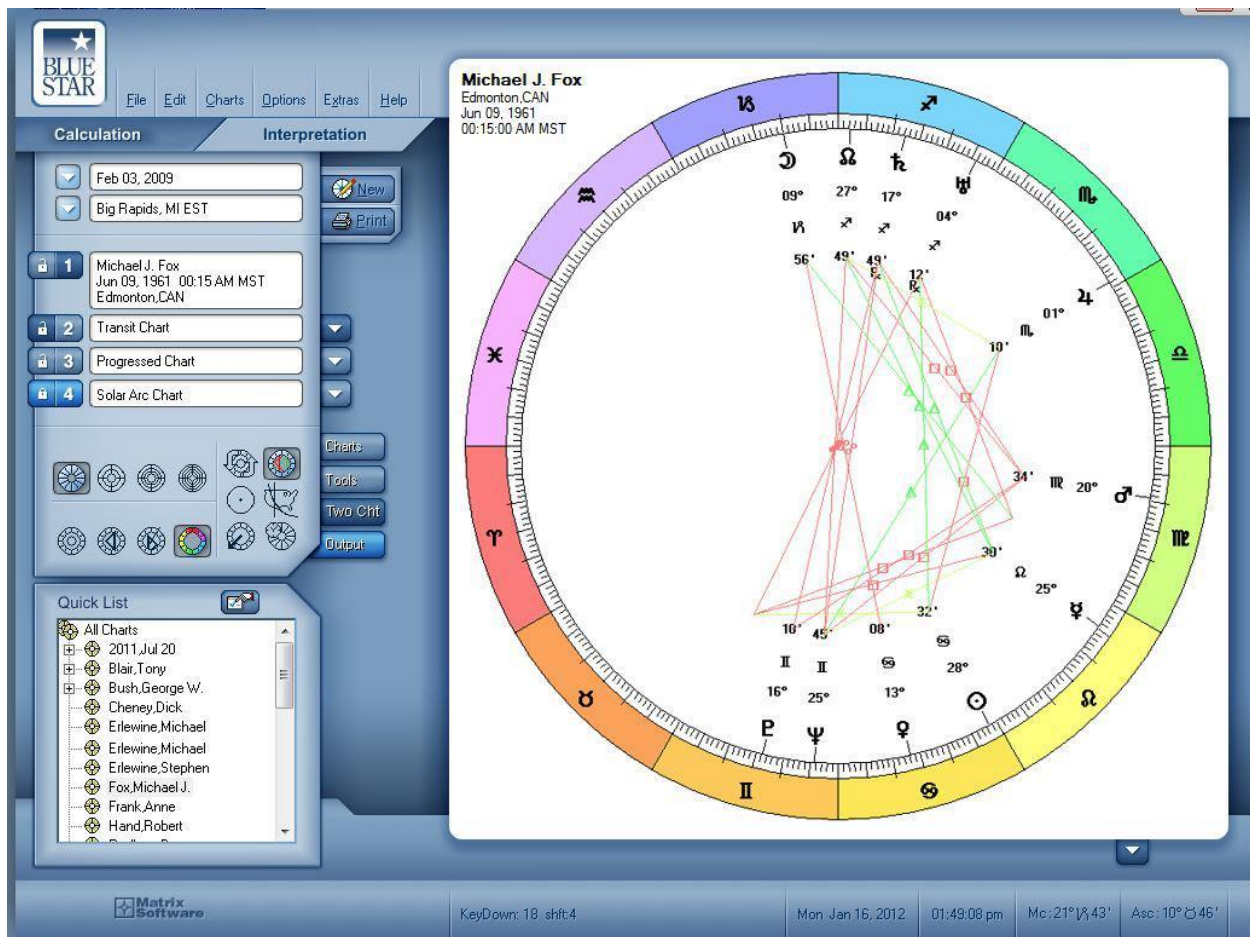

The Calculation Mode has all the normal wheels and lists of things you would expect: creating and saving charts, etc., gorgeous wheels, attractive PDF printouts, etc. It is all there and easy to access.

But Blue*Star also has something new, an interpretation mode for those new to astrology, sixteen complete interpretive reports in PDF-style format, fully illustrated, and concise. I personally wrote the interpretive text for all the reports. And while these reports were designed to be read by beginners (non-astrologers), some of them (like the Landscape Saturn Cycle report) are so helpful, I find myself using it all the time.

Blue*Star, which comes with both the calculation and interpretive modes, lists for $199 but is available to my Facebook friend for an introductory price of just $99, half price. Access to this many reports used to cost thousands of dollars. Now you can have perpetual instant reports for your entire family and client base at a moment's notice. Just press a button to view any of the sixteen reports.

It does all of the techniques I use here on Facebook, including the StarTypes and Saturn Returns. Check it out please. Look at the images and read what it does. More details for ordering here:

Part 1: Calculation Module

Use the calculation part to produce gorgeous, color wheels, pop-up interpretations, copy and paste wheels to the clipboard or MS-Word, choose single, bi, tri, or quad wheels to place your charts in, swap charts between wheels, center aspects in color, geo and helio charts, as well as Local Space azimuth charts, 90-Degree Dial, Moving Astro-clock, Aspects sorted by orb, and much more. Synastry between two charts, step charts forward and backward in time, lunar and solar returns, Arabic parts, time scans, StarType archetype aspect patterns, planetary hours, midpoints, phase charts, dual chart display, print chart wheels, includes natal, transit, and synastry interpretations, out charts to PDF, high-quality designer wheels, and much more. Some illustrations here:

<http://www.astrologysoftware.com/software/bluestar/calculation.asp?orig>

Part 2: Interpretive Reports

Up until now, detailed interpretive reports cost $100-$200 each. Blue*Star contains 16 complete and illustrated astrological reports written by veteran astrologer Michael Erlewine (that's me) that cover the areas most discussed by professional astrologers, including Natal, Vocational, Relationships (friends, lovers, co-workers), Spiritual, Transits, Strategic, Life Overview, and separate forecasts for each planet.

Each report is illustrated with interpretive text tailored for those new to astrology. You don't have to be an astrologer to read them, although astrological details are included in small print for professionals. Here are details and a few pages from all sixteen reports.

Burn Rate

We all change, but the question is: At what rate? Some of us tear through change after change, one phase following another, year after year, while others move at a more serene pace. Or, one area of our lives may be hectic while others are quite tranquil. Why do some people see change in one area of their lives while others see it in another? Here is an analysis of your particular rate of change in particular areas of your life (planets) where you can expect growth. Areas where there is a very low index of change (of the qualities involved) will also be pointed out. If you are interested about the areas of your life where the candles burn brightly, you will find this section most helpful.

You have a high burn rate (index of change) and tend to like having many lifetimes within this single one. You move with you, and you seldom remain calm for long. You keep you always on the move. You work through change compared to an average person. In particular, the fields you have experienced and will continue to experience in life persist in presenting themselves to you, so you have experienced in them. On the other hand, they could but have not yet attained mastery.

A majority of planets in the FUTURE suggests that you are taking changes and acting things out before they reach their status quo. Things happen to you that you come to realize later.

Planets in House
Your drive and ambition. They will tend to be continual adjustments. A special gift --

You have a high burn rate when it comes to your life or your work. You are vulnerable. Do not take things through a lot of changes on a regular basis.

Challenges

Life can be challenging, and things are not always easy. The major challenges in a natal chart are where we can expect increased activity and personal involvement -- ready or not. These critical areas of life can be difficult, and the resulting confusion and possible obscuration often makes it hard for us to see and act with normal clarity. Therefore, when it comes to the following factors you may wish to exercise caution and extra patience.

Getting personal with you is a real mistake, for it always manages to plunge you into turmoil. You resent probing on the part of others, yet are fascinated by behind-the-scenes and so-called "secret" information. You may prefer not to think about anything below the surface, but even this is not a constant, and this inner conflict produces more than its share of tension.

Mercury Square Pluto 03°48'

Your thinking is probably anything but organized, and you could find it hard to study or exercise any real mental discipline. You run on and on in the word department, finding it difficult to limit yourself to the message at hand. Others may end up setting limits for you. Your free-form approach to conversations lacks responsibility and could result in confrontations with authorities. In other words, what you say could get you in trouble. At the very least, others find much of what you say and think impractical.

Mercury Opposition Saturn 05°16'

You may have to learn to think with more care when it comes to making career moves -- decisions that affect your life's direction. The fact is that you spend a lot of time on thoughts that have nothing to do with the real world. Many of these thoughts and ideas tend to be impractical and prove more trouble than they are worth. You are better off seeking advice than giving it, at least when it comes to matters of vocation.

Mercury Opposition Jupiter 05°46'

You tend to avoid getting personal when it comes to your own emotions, and would rather keep sensitive matters at arm's length. You don't mind getting into the personal business of others, producing some heavy confrontations. Those around you don't care for personal probing on your part, and they will let you know it. Your home and surroundings tend to be very traditional.

Inclinations & Disinclinations

Details on Your Inclinations and Disinclinations

Now you have a general idea of many inclinations and disinclinations make up your attitude, and whether that attitude is mostly positive or mostly negative, inclined or disinclined. Now let's look at each of your inclinations and disinclinations, one by one. These are listed in order of importance, which means that those near the top are much more precise and important for you to consider than those farther down the list. Check them out.

Career in Imagination or

Love for Career

Interface Points

7 Points: 6 Positive and 1 Negative

You can see above what percentage of your approach to life has to do with affinities or inclinations and what has to do with disinclinations, where you rub up against stuff. Keep in mind, these percentages say nothing about how many of these combinations you actually have. We covered that above.

What these percentages are about are, regardless of whether you have many or few, how positive or negative are they and, correspondingly, are you? Do you have more affinities in life or more areas where you are not inclined? That is the question we are looking at here.

You Tend to Be Not So Involved

When all is said and done, you are not all that involved in life, not quite as wrapped up in your own opinions and theories as the average person, because there are not that many inclinations or disinclinations in your birth chart. In other words, your mind is relatively clear and steady, not easily distracted by your own opinions and partialities. You are generally able to concentrate and get things done, and life is usually be pretty clear sailing in your case. However, might get boring once in a while, and you may find yourself with time on your hands.

It is easy for you to make up your mind, make the hard calls, and what opinions you do have, you are pretty certain about - not a lot of confusion. While you find that others argue endlessly on this or that topic, you will state your view and not want to argue it. In time, you may prefer to keep your likes and dislikes to yourself. What perhaps is also important here is the balance between the inclinations you have and what it is you are disinclined toward.

Jupiter: Career and Life Path
 Authored by Michael Erlewine

Forecasting as to when it is best to make career and life-path decisions.

Jupiter is the planet of career and life direction. One of the ancient Sanskrit words for Jupiter is 'guru', and Jupiter is, literally, the guide as well as the path we take through life. The planet Jupiter is always our way through, in whatever circumstances, the obstacles we are faced with. Our difficulties and problems are intricately connected to the laws of this universe, as well as to the planet Saturn, and lawyers are connected to Jupiter because they handle the law, and show us (at times) how to get around the law.

This forecast is about how the planet Jupiter figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. It will have much to say about your career and the best path for you to tread, at this time, through your life.

In the Workplace

In these next two sections, we will first consider how Michael fits into the workplace and then some more personal observations. What we will point out here is something about Michael's talents and how they might relate to various career approaches.

Synopsis:

Caring, and kind, perhaps a little shy or self-conscious. Not too social, but very skilled with words and ideas. Always interested in other people, caring for them. An inner drive that is apparent to all.

The Entrepreneur

Pros: Michael is high energy, ambitious, and pretty much driven to succeed. There is an ability to grasp concepts, pick out patterns in the mind with ease, coupled with a persistent drive to make these ideas manifest and happen in the world. Michael is a dreamer, daring to see into the future and make it happen now, thus the title "The Entrepreneur." She uses the mind extensively and is thoughtful, careful, and meticulous.

Cons: she is not a people person, except perhaps in enthusing others about a particular idea or project. She runs cool, not warm, so should stay away from sales. She would probably not make a good group (hands-on) leader, but would make a great advisor or consultant. Can be too much theory and not enough practice.

With Co-workers:

Michael makes a wonderful friend, is naturally of a compassionate nature, and very forward looking. She is more at home with words and the mind in general, than with a lot of glad-handing and group peer pressure. Michael is, for the most part, kind, thoughtful, and naturally cares for others. She is looking for a long-term friendship, and values her friendships very highly. Her agility with concepts and ideas is marvelous and she would often rather talk or read more about something than actually do it. Michael is highly motivated, almost driven to reach out and make contact with others.

Mars: Drive and Ambition
 Authored by Michael Erlewine

A time-map as to when real drive and ambition will be available to you.

Mars is the planet of drive and ambition, literally, what motivates us and urges us on onward along whatever path we take. Mars keeps us going; it is the way we reach out, defining, at times, the place where push comes to shove. It has to do with how we are aggressive, how we assert ourselves; this need not necessarily mean in an unrestrained manner, although this too can happen at times. If we are looking for a pick-me-up, perhaps some extra energy to get the job done, Mars can indicate when this might be available, and in what form.

This forecast is about how the planet Mars figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. Mars is that gut-feeling motivating us to do things, keeping us on the job, and urging us forward toward the future.

Mercury: Communications and Connections.
 Authored by Michael Erlewine

Forecasting when you can expect to connect and communicate.

Mercury is the planet of communication of all kinds, the links and connections which keep us alert and aware of what is going on around us. Mercury is the light in our eyes, the energy and interest that keeps information, via news, messages, messengers, small talk, and of course gossip, circulating through us. Mercury is about more than just awareness and intellect, it also relates to how we learn. And so, whether it is learning we acquire as students, apprentices or disciples, it refers to anything that can be used as a way to point out, enhance, and circulate our awareness.

This forecast is about how the planet Mercury figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. It will have much to say about your mind and mental state, as well as illustrating the best way to keep your awareness and mental energy circulating.

Neptune: Imagination and Spirituality
 Authored by Michael Erlewine

A calendar forecast of times for spiritual and imaginative events in your life.

Neptune is the planet of imagination, of the artistic (music, film, the arts) and also of all forms of spiritual unity, including our visions of togetherness -all that we share in common. On a higher octave, Neptune represents compassion, peace, and whatever unites us and makes us whole. A Neptune calendar will mark the times when you will be enabled to be more imaginative and compassionate, as well as when this kind of experience will be more difficult to attain.

This forecast is about how the planet Neptune figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. Spiritual experiences, whether through formal religions, or through alternative ways of experiencing the great unity of all life, are listed here.

Pluto: Transformation.
 Authored by Michael Erlewine

A day-by-day guide as to when real change and transformation is possible.

Pluto stands for true transformation, experiences which touch us so deeply, and make us feel so vulnerable, that we are somehow changed forever. This planet is not noted for being gentle and subtle, but rather for being sudden and dramatic. A Pluto experience is seldom forgotten, and often marks a pivot, or turning point, in our lives.

This forecast is about how the planet Pluto figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. In this calendar will be marked the days and times when we can best work with the force of change, as well as those times when we will be better off waiting for another time to do so.

Saturn in your Natal Chart
 Before we present your Saturn forecast for the coming months, let's review how the planet Saturn is configured in your natal or birth chart. What follows is an interpretation of Saturn at your birth to the Sun, Moon, and other planets. It should help to give you a general idea of how you related to matters of discipline and organization. Here goes:

Serious Ideas
 As a rule, you may be given to sober or somber thoughts, perhaps sometimes a little too heavy for those around you, but these thoughts can turn into solid plans for organization or re-organization, given a chance. Making plans to establish better self-discipline are skills you have.

Keep Control
 Making the best use you can from an experience of being perhaps overly controlled, whether by some law or rules laid upon you. While you can't change the experience, you can choose what to take away from it, and what to ignore from your personal experience. Here the move is to be more conservative, and not to rash or indulging. Keep back.

Friday Sep 2010 03
Public Control
 Here is a turning point, during which you are moving out and away from what was perhaps a somewhat heavy experience, an experience where you may have felt under the domination of rules or laws, even to the point of being inhibited. This is an ideal point to stop taking it personally, put a different perspective on it, and consider it part of your personal past, and not your future.

Sunday Sep 2010 05
Critical Control
 Going over and over a heavy experience, one where you may have felt overly controlled or unduly inhibited by rules/laws - whatever the case may have been. The experience should be set in relief now, giving you the vision to see it clearly, detach from it, and be critical of it in a positive way, seeing the good parts and laughing off the parts you won't repeat. The energy should be there to help you, just now.

Monday Sep 2010 06
Depression
 Don't let a hard lesson add insult to injury by hanging on to it. If you feel under pressure or attack, you have the responsibility to just let a lot of it go, to let it pass. You are free to take a new grip on the entire episode.

Tuesday Sep 2010 07
Care Emotions
 Taking the lessons to heart of a recent experience, where you were held back or down, perhaps unduly inhibited by rules, laws, or circumstances. That is history now, and all that should remain is the essence of what it meant, to be remembered and used to build a better future.

Saturn: Discipline and Control
 Authored by Michael Erlewine

What are the times when discipline and control will be optimum for you?

Saturn is all about organization, control, and discipline, either exercised by ourselves, or applied to us externally, by some outside power. We often have, more or less, some choice as to how such power and control is exercised or applied. Saturn also represents all of the obstacles and blockage that life seems to place in our path, and which we then have to find a way through, some 'work-around' for. Saturn stands for the law and any organized force. Saturn also represents the walls which make our homes possible.

This forecast is about how the planet Saturn figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. Saturn is where we are limited, and where we are forced to exercise discipline and control. It is our taskmaster.

 Authored by Michael Erlewine

A roadmap of when insight and discovery are most possible for you.

The planet Uranus charts the path of innovation and discovery in our lives; not what stabilizes and binds us (as Saturn does), but what liberates and frees us; the places where we can look for a break-through experience, some light at the end of the tunnel. This planet shows us how we can be different, how we might bring some variety and change into our lives. This forecast helps to map out opportunities for independence and improvement.

This forecast is about how the planet Uranus figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. The planet Uranus indicates change, and novel ways in which this change might occur. It charts opportunities to view things in a new way, to find a way out of the box.

 Learn to Accept
 You may realize a feeling of pride or confidence concerning your family, younger persons, or the past - a sense of accomplishment. At the same time, this could be followed by signs that some change is necessary on your part, in particular, as to not pushing so hard in these areas, and, instead, just letting things come to you.

 Inspiring Others
 Here is a time when you are more aware of spiritual concerns, and probably able to put them into words and communicate with others about them. Not a time without its problems, but one where your openness of whatever draws people together. Unity and such things, is heightened.

Venus: Love and Values
 Authored by Michael Erlewine

Forecasting when your love concerns and values will be strongest.

This forecast report combines the Sun, the Moon, and the Earth with one of the traditional planets, in this case, with the planet Venus, and examines their interplay. The resulting forecasts points out all of the major activity for the coming time period involving this planet. Let us take a moment to review some of the traditional meanings for Venus.

Venus is the planet of love and compassion, everything we care about and also how we go about caring. The planet Venus not only relates to questions of romance, but also to our values, including what we value – being connected to the value of “things” in our life; Venus is thus connected to money, wealth, and to all of our 'valuables'. Has to do not only with love and appreciation, but also with the appreciation and valuation of things in general.
