

EMMA IN CALIFORNIA
April 21, 2013

Yes, while it is 18-degrees as I write this here in Michigan, the state when spring never came this year... so far, Emma is on a trip to Northern California, visiting the ocean, the high bluffs, and the sunshine, with her mom and dad.

Here Emma meets a California tree and, although I can't be sure, is probably saying as she looks, one of her favorite phrases "Oh Wow!"
