

ONE NIGHT ONLY!

December 1, 2011

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

We are gathering Friday evening December 2, 2011 at the Multi-Purpose Room of the Ann Arbor District Library (343 South Fifth Avenue) and it is definitely turning into a party. We have trimmed back the schedule so that we will have at least one and one-half hours after we open the poster exhibit to just party, share refreshments and each other's company. Many folks are coming and that includes my friends Gary Grimshaw, John Sinclair, Leni Sinclair, Peter Andrews, and many more. Maybe you will be there.

John Sinclair is flying in from Amsterdam just in time for the presentation.

And there will be a special opportunity. I happen to own copies of a very rare Grimshaw poster, one made for the inauguration of the Rock Posters of Michigan Society here in Ann Arbor. Less than twenty of these posters were ever distributed and that makes it rare. As a personal tribute to the work of Gary Grimshaw and John Sinclair I am bringing a small number of this full-sized full-color poster to the Friday-night opening of the show.

On a first-come-first-serve basis you can purchase this poster at the show for a donation of just $15 and all money goes directly to Gary and John. Gary is happy to sign the posters right on the spot.

Here is your chance to have a signed Grimshaw poster made in and for Ann Arbor for $15. And your money goes to support the ongoing efforts of these two cultural pioneers: Gary Grimshaw and John Sinclair.

Don't forget the exhibit which includes over 30 framed and matted rock concert posters from my personal collection as well as a gallery of classic photographs by Leni Sinclair from back in the day.

As they say, be there or be...
