Artist: Randy Tuten
Venue: Portland Coliseum
Items:
Original poster POC / CP031302 / NM11252

Notes: This is the first job I did for Direct Productions. As it turn out I did quite alot of work for them. They already had a full color poster and handbill for this show and they wanted a handbill/flyer to hand out. This was only produced as a handbill/flyer and as it turned out the show was cancelled and reschedule later that year. wich I also designed the posters and handbills using the same promo photos and a photo of them playing with some western style lettering. The printer ran it to dark and and the photo filled in with ink. This is the same printer that did the printing for the Family Dog on the Great Highway and made lots of mistakes.

Original poster POC / CP031307 / NM11257

Notes: I liked this design a little bit better than the frist one becasue the photo was a protrait photo and in sepia-tone it looks great. There were two designs and Direct Productions could not make up they minds so they did both, this was the second poster and handbill/flyer for this show that was resecured from earlier this year. This is a photo of the handbill/flyer the poster is dark brown ink on brown colored paper. With some of my lettering on top and incorporated into the photo and a nice boader with flowerie things in the bottom corners. I think this is classic looking CSN&Y poster with a western feel to it due largely to the photo.
