

COMING SOON: Topics for YouTube
June 29, 2011

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

I have been a little preoccupied lately with putting together the beginnings of what I hope will be many, many short videos on various aspects of astrology, including some of the more esoteric topics. It will take some time, but for those interested here is a very rough intro video that will give you a very short taste. Just go to the link:

Let me know your thoughts please. Would this be something possibly useful to you? It won't be a talking head, but a talking voice with graphics as you see in this demo.

I may be quiet for a few days, while I figure out the technical part of all this.
