

THE FIRST SHOW: VISION OF THE ECLIPSE

January 28, 2013

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

Here I am coming up for air. Many things going on. Dodging sickness, as a heavy flu is going around and taking down many in my family. As you all know, bitter, bitter temperatures and a bunch of snow on top of it. And then there is the TV show.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aPINsRxltxA&feature=youtu.be>

Well, I have learned a lot working on this, and it has been very slow going because every time I need a photo or a graphic or anything, I have to go and make it or find and get it.

Anyway, here is a rough-cut of the first show on visions and eclipses, how New and Full Moons affect us psychologically and emotionally, especially if they are eclipses.

Those of you who have read my blogs know I have done my best to keep them coming and as interesting as I can. Now I could use your help, if you have a mind to.

As you have time, please give the new show a look and listen and let me know your feedback, the good, the bad, and the ugly, as they say. I want to work at this until I can produce a decent show, and your help is appreciated. If your comment is really "ugly," feel free to email it to me at Michael@Erlewine.net.

Other than being in over my head, which I love, nothing too much is going on. Anyway, how would I know if there were? I am too far down the pipe for much to register. What's going on out there with you?