The Retinal Circus Posters and Cards sell for @ $1500 (6 posters, 31 cards)

A club in Vancouver, with several incarnations, that ran from late 1967 through late 1968. This set, which is pretty much complete as far as I can determine, includes 6 posters and some 31 cards, for a total of 37 items. The posters are somewhat unique, having a distinct design quality quite unlike what was happening in the Bay Area. For example,

The card set, a collector's item in itself, includes the rare triangle-shaped piece, almost impossible to find these days. The Retinal Circus is just starting to catch the collector's eye. Since I have never seen a comprehensive authenticated list, it is not clear how many pieces are out there. Here is an opportunity to have pretty much everything there is, including the very rare posters. Some folks have the cards, but try and find the posters.
