The Seed, Version 1: Amazing Charlatans at Red Dog Saloon - Virginia City, NV

Notes: The Seed

by Michael Erlewine

Here is the poster that most experts agree launched the '60s era of alternative culture. This poster features the band "The {Charlatans}" at an extended gig in {Virginia City}, Nevada at the {Red Dog Saloon}. It was designed by members of the band.

"The Seed" was printed in two versions, one with a date of "June 1-16, 1965" and the second (and final) version with "June 21."

Apparently the Red Dog Saloon had not finished their redecorating in time for that first poster, so the second was printed, and in many respects the art was redrawn. Version one is said to have been printed originally in blue, but was then printed in black, which is considered the standard version.

The poster was created by two of the Charlatan's members, {George Hunter} and {Michael Ferguson}, with Hunter having devised the logo, and Ferguson doing most of the actual drawing, including the portraits.

Poster expert {Walter Medeiros} wrote the following in a catalog for a poster show that was produced fro the {San Francisco Museum of Modern Art} in 1976:

"The Seed is unique for being completely hand-drawn, in a densely patterned format, and was much different from rock posters that existed then. Yet it is reminiscent of nineteenth-century carnival, medicine show, and music hall posters, in that it boldly heralds a spectacular event that shouldn't be missed. It has a funky character about it, and 'funkiness' was one of the most prominent characteristics of hippie sensibility. And the poster carries off this feeling because of the lightness and capriciousness which permeates the whole work."

The poster was given the name, "The Seed" by the authors of "Eureka, The Great Poster Trip," the first book on psychedelic posters, published in 1968. It is a fact that the Charlatans were the heralds of the coming of the alternative culture that was about to emerge in San Francisco, and the "The Seed" was the first poster that broke with the tradition of the boxing-style posters in use at the time. There is no question that the interest in Victorian clothes, old-time music, and the style and embellishments of an earlier era are reflected in this poster.

While I can see in these two posters the elements of the hippie culture that loves old clothes and the like, what is entirely missing to my eyes is any sign of the kind of consciousness shift (that was already present in the community) typical of hallucinogens like peyote and {LSD}, although these drugs were very available in 1965, and had been for some years. The closest to anything new age or signifying a new consciousness are the few symbols and signs that were drawn in, like the planet Saturn, the Moon, an Iron Cross, and a swastika (first version only).

One of my main interests is to trace the history of the psychedelic influence in '60s art and music. After all, the whole genre of posters is often called "psychedelic posters," and I don't see much of the psychedelic in "The Seed."

For that, you have to look at that first {Family Dog} dance flyer by artist {Alton Kelley}, for October 16, 1965, a gig with the {Jefferson Airplane} and {Charlatans} at {Longshoremen's Hall}. There you see the Tibetan-style flames throughout the poster, something commonly used throughout the era to represent the intensity and awareness of altered consciousness.

{!P CP013552 "Family Dog First Dance "}

And if we want to have no doubt whatsoever of the advent of the psychedelic element in posters, then just move right to the "Can You Pass the {Acid Test}?" poster by artist {Norman Hartweg}, an event on December 18, 1965 held at {Muir Beach}. The poster is all about LSD, and the poster is unquestionably psychedelic.

My point is that, although "The Seed" serves to mark the advent of the new culture and a different (but still mostly retro) approach to posters, it does not really put the word 'psychedelic' into psychedelic posters. It took a few more months for that to take place.

Notes: The 'Human Be-In,' a named coined by Michael Bowen for the event, which was held in Golden Gate Park, in the polo grounds. This poster was designed by Stanley Mouse and Michael Bowen, and printed at the Bindweed Press in San Francisco. The poster announced "A Gathering of the Tribes for a Human Be-In." This is considered, along with the Trips Festival, one of the key events of the era, an event that brought both the Beat element and the emerging Hippies together, sharing their cultures. The event was fashioned after the Hindu Festival Kumbha Mela, a non-sectarian religious festival held in India every 12 years. The Human Be-In was to be an American version of this kind of spiritual event.

The event was co-organized by Allen Cohen, the publisher of the San Francisco Oracle, and he featured the event on the cover of his publication. In attendance were all the high lords of psychedelia, including Baba Ram Das, Timothy Leary, Allen Ginsberg, Gary Snyder, and radicals Dick Gregory and Jerry Rubin, along with the Grateful Dead, Quicksilver Messenger Service, and many others - a true meeting of the minds. Radicals/Beats, Mind Trippers, and Hippies, all merging in a single event.

This is considered to be one of the high-water marks in the history of psychedelic posters. This poster is considered essential to any comprehensive collection of the posters of this era. It is very difficult to find. There were 500 originals printed.

In the Dark

Notes: Actually a piece of Arista promo notepaper or stationery. SIGNED by artist Alton Kelley [in black ball-point pen at LR]. Essentially a piece of Arista promotional swag from the Grateful Dead's July 1987 album, "In The Dark" [Arista 8452]. There are so many things made up to promote a major LP release, and this is another.. This one features artwork associated with the Skull Fu*k, or Skull & Roses album released 10/71.. A Mouse! Studios design, central image lifted from a turn of the century Rubayat illustration by Edmund Sullivan.. design & lettering by Alton Kelley & Stanley Mouse. -- Jacaeber Kastor

Alton Kelley's Dinosaurs Posters $1000

Notes: Alton Kelley's Dinosaur Series $1,000

Here is a small set that is vigorously collected and prized, the series of posters done by Alton Kelley for the group "Dinosaurs." This is a run of 11 of the series. I believe there is one more, which I will leave you to run down.

{!P CP007031 "Kelley's Dinosaurs at the Starry Night, Portland"}

These are in a variety of styles, most quite colorful, and interesting to page through as set or to see on the wall.

Contact Michael Erlewine at info@ClassicPosters.com with questions of for more details on purchasing this set.

Texas Posters

{!P CP007030 "Kelley's Dinosaurs at Memorial Auditorium"}

One of the hottest items currently in the world of posters are those from Texas, from the late 1960's through the 1970's, and in particular the series at the Armadillo World Headquarters in Austin, Texas.

Artist Rights Today Set of Four Signed $1300

Notes: Artist's Rights Today $1300
This is a set of four posters, for the first three Artist's rights benefits, in San Francisco for the rights of artists. These posters are very undervalued. Where else can you get the signatures of Rick Griffin... Wes Wilson, Alton Kelley, AND Victor Moscoso? Where can you get Griffin's signature at all? This set includes all three main posters, plus the alternate color version for the 2nd event, and all four posters are signed by all four artists. Better yet, these are gorgeous posters, perfectly printed on the best stock, and large.
