Original poster POC / CP031302 / NM11252

Notes: This is the first job I did for Direct Productions.

As it turn out I did quite alot of work for them. They already had a full color poster and handbill for this show and they wanted a handbill/flyer to hand out. This was only produced as a handbill/flyer and as it turned out the show was cancelled and reschedule later that year. wich I also designed the posters and handbills using the same promo photos and a photo of them playing with some western style lettering. The printer ran it to dark and and the photo filled in with ink. This is the same printer that did the printing for the Family Dog on the Great Highway and made lots of mistakes.

Jefferson Airplane, Grateful Dead at Winterland - San Francisco, CA

Artist: Randy Tuten
Venue: Winterland

Items:

Original poster WIN / CP031317 / NM11267

Notes: This was a playbill type book for the Winterland Productions shows for the month of october based on the Bill Graham's Fillmore East show booklets. All the shows in the booklet were in the month of October. There were only two of these books produced this being the first. I design the cover as well as the layouts of inside pages. I wasn't sure what to do for the cover so I used a Drawing/collage of crazy things including a street signs that say Post & Steiner streets in San Francisco. That's where Winterland used to be. They must have liked it they asked me to produced one for November shows as well.

Items:

Original poster WIN / CP031316 / NM11266

Notes: Winterland Productions was started by Paul Beratta, Dell Furano and Dave Furano. Paul was Bill Graham's right hand man in the early days he left Bill Graham Presents to start Winterland Productions as an alternative to The Fillmore and of course make some money on his own. This was there second show and poster no.2. the first show and poster No.1 was Jefferson Airplane, Grateful Dead, Hot Tuna and The New Riders of the Purple Sage, October 5th & 6th, Sunday & Monday at Winterland. David Singer did the poster and these two were printed together. This would have been a better poster had a more intrested band been headlining as it was Mason-Cass were couldn't make it was replace by The Four Tops with the other acts. A handbill with red lettering on white paper was done for the Four Tops show only. After this all Winterland posters were photos with my lettering. It was to bad this was a very nice looking poster, but who cares about Mason-Cass band. Anyway the Winterland people must of like it they had me do the rest of the series of posters until they went out of business and Bill Graham took over.

Notes: This was the second of this lettering style and boarder design poster. Bill would frequently add a coming show or shows to the bottom of poster and this design made it simpler to change or add information. Also they were one color which meant it could be printed quickly. and I suppose it reflected the look of the Fillmore East ads and poster. So Bill liked it.

Notes: Bill had asked me to do a quick lettering poster for these shows, as the artist that was working on the regular poster BG276 was running late getting it to the printer. This is how the straight information poster started for Bill Graham Presents in San Francisco. I believe it's the first infomation type poster for the Fillmore West, Winterland, Civic Auditorium. Bill needed this right now! I didn't have any time to do this so I just used the formula lettering that I had been using as I was very busy with other posters, so it had to be simple. There was only a poster produced in very limited number until the official poster came out with handbills and all, There was no handbill produced of this image.

up a picture of Joe Frazier at a gym, you'd more than likely think boxing, but they wanted a picture of Joe in a tux singing! now I didn't know Joe could sing so I got a hold of this photo. Well when Notes: I liked this design a little bit better than the

it looks great. There were two designs and Direct Productions could not make up they minds so they did both, this was the second poster and handbill/flyer for this show that was reseculd from earler this year. This is a photo of the handbill/flyer the poster is dark brown ink on brown colored paper. With some of my lettering on top and incorporated into the photo and a nice boader with flowerie things in the bottom corners. I think this is classic looking CSN&Y poster with a western feel to it due largely to the photo.

West, Bruce at Salt Lale Terrace Ballroom
Artist: Randy Tuten
Venue: Salt Lale Terrace Ballroom
Items:
Original poster / CP031373 / NM11323
Notes: West, Bruce and Laing were a power trio made up from members of Mountain and The Cream along the lines of Beck, Bogart & Appice. When I designed this poster for Bill we decided just to have lettering as the main design and He didn't want to do three different posters with the city's & dates of each show. So we used the same design on all three images and changed the second act on each. The first one was for Utah I do not have any of these left.
The second image was for the show at San Diego Community Concourse, Friday March 31st w/Cold Blood I only have two of these. The third image was for the show at Seattle Arena, Tuesday April 14th w/Cold Blood I only have two of these also. I never saw a handbill for these posters there could have been. It was around the time they were doing handbills for shows.

Sha Na Na, Elvin Bishop at ALBERT S. GOODE HALL
Artist: Randy Tuten
Venue: Albert S. Goode Hall

Items:

Original poster / CP031374 / NM11324

Notes: Direct Production had spilt up into many factions and A & P productions was a result of that. I was tring to give this a street gang look to it since everyone in the photo's look like hoodlems and with gang style lettering on top of that it was for Bakerfield. For some reason I ended up doing lots of Sha-Na-Na posters over the years. Grootna was Marty Balin's Band of Jefferson Airplane fame.

Original poster SCMA / CP031375 / NM11325

Notes: I design this to have a street gang look to it with the photo and bold lettering a straight foward designed to work for both venues. Again Bill didn't want to do separate posters for the shows. The first image is listed above. The second image was for Santa Clara County Fairgrounds April 9th and on the bottom it had: Coming Friday April 28th, Ten Years After to the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds. Only have one of first one, and have two of second one.

I used a drawing of a womans head with her hair flying out and highlighted the dates instead of the bands. There were too many bands to design something around them. Palladino Productions was an result of Direct Productions braking up. Steve Palladino was part of Direct Productions.

Who at Winterland - San Francisco, CA

Artist: Randy Tuten
Venue: Winterland
Items:
Original poster WIN / CP031280 / NM11230

Notes: This was an admat that the Who sent out to promoters was just the flag and Who '76. I just hand lettered the date and venue and stack the information about tickets. the boarder holds it all together. At the end of the press run the printer had some gold card stock and so we put that in the press. Bill Graham like it so much he wished he had done the whole run that way they weren't more than 50 of the gold ones bottom image.

Notes: I wanted to do something more than just a big picture of Bob Marley, since Jamaica is an island I did rope boarders with banners waving, with a porthole and he's looking through it. The second image on detail page is photo of framed original art work.

Notes: Portal Publications, Ltd. contacted me about doing two designs for THE EAGLES. Daddy Bread and my self designed two beautiful designs for them but they failed to get the rights to print the designs from THE EAGLES, and so they forced Portal Publications to Destroye the entire run of posters for the Frist design. The design came out very nice. The second design was done but they had already blowin it with THE EAGLES the design was eventually used in 1994 for Bill Graham Presents.

Notes: REPLACE EXISTING IMAGE

This was supposed to be the Masquerade Hookers Ball but because they were trying to operate in San Francisco, New York and Los Angeles they changed the name to Masquerade Ball and then they ended up cancelling the other two shows and just having the San Francisco one anyway, so they should have left it Masquerade Hookers Ball it would have been even better than it is. The second image is the way it was supposed to be they shorten the ends as to fit on handbill, the bottom image is the billboard it was on the Sunset Stripe up from the Whisky-A-Go Go night club. there was supposed to be a billboard in Time Square, N.Y. as well.

Pool Aid '94 at Hollywood Athletic Club

Artist: Randy Tuten
Venue: Hollywood Athletic Club

Items:

Original poster / CP031158 / NM11108

Notes: D. Bread and I designed this for the Aids Project Los Angeles. In the end, they didn't use our design, but the poster they ended up using (second image) looks remarkably similar, doesn't it? The L.A. people told me in so many words to screw myself. Talk about your pack of liars I had copyrighted the design, and was going to sue them, but the lawyer thought suing the Los Angeles Aids Project was a bad idea public relations wise.

Notes: REPLACE EXISTING IMAGE

I designed this poster for Bob Sarles for a 22 minute film about the San Francisco music scene in the 60's. The film played at the Rock'n'Roll Museum in Cleveland, it played for a year. The design is based on John Cipollina's famous guitar - this guitar and stack of amps with horns that John played is the first thing you see inside the front door at the museum. I was glad they (Bob Sarles) wanted to use John on the poster, there was some talk of using Janis Joplin. I think this is a beautiful poster. To me John's guitar playing style was unique and special, and so this image really represents Rock and Roll for me. Whit Clifton did the drawing of John Cipollina.

Notes: REPLACE EXISTING IMAGE

This is supposed to represent driving out of the tunnel of the San Francisco Bay Bridge on Treasure Island as you approach San Francisco, with the Golden Gate Bridge to the right. I took some liberties with the painting, e.g., the San Mateo Bridge is on the left along with the Stanford University Tower although you can't see them from there. This poster would have been a beautiful poster had they gotten it color separated the correct way, and printed it smaller and on thicker paper, but they persisted with oversized and cheap paper - those two things can kill a poster. Still, it's a very nice image and it was a killer show. There was a handbill for this show but it didn't have the bands on it, that's the second image

Notes: This was a wedding invitation I designed for Rick & Darian, friends of mine. I tried to give the feeling that everything is interwoven, including love and matters of the heart. Everything comes from the gold heart at the center top, and I gave it that classic book or volume look to it, everyone liked it very much. I was very happy to do this for Rick and Darian. This wedding is the only occasion on which I wore a tux.

Notes: The first Austin Powers movie had just been released and the clients wanted something like that, flower power-ish, so this is a takeoff of Austin Powers. This was a Bill Graham Special Event, for a graduation party at the Fillmore Auditorium, but it had no number and was only printed as tickets and an invitation for the event. I believe one or two big posters were produced.

POSTER # RF-02

I designed this for Bob Sarles of Ravin' Films for a VH1/Behind The Music series on TV. I tried to give this a sexy look and feel to it as Grace Slick loved sex, but we didn't want to use Grace on the poster. I designed a Vargas type girl wearing the famous vest that Grace wore at Woodstock to represent her. She doesn't have any panties on to represent the fact that Grace slept with almost everybody. I used an old bi-plane to reflect the early Airplane feel of the 60's and 70's. It was printed in Reds, Oranges and Yellows to convey hot sexy colors.

Notes: When I designed this I originally had it raining on the umbrella but then I thought, wherever he goes it rains piano keys, so I changed it to raining piano keys from inside the umbrella. Without the handle, it almost looks like a mushroom. This poster was a big success and very popular - everybody involved loved it.

appearance of a rock'n'roll notice from the 60's. There was not a lot of time to do it. I think it was printed in four colors - red,

Notes: The band asked Bill Graham Presents to hire me to design a poster because they liked my work. The drawing of Mount Rushmore with revolutionaries (Che Guevara, Zapata, Angela Davis & Malcolm X) instead of presidents was at the suggestion of the band and was done by Whit Clifton. We completed the job, but the band kept cancelling for one reason or another. The concert was canceled twice, and never actually took place.

Stoned Immaculate at NY, NY

Artist: Randy Tuten

Venue: New York, NY

Items:

Original poster / CP031134 / NM11084

Notes: Elektra Records in New York and people in Los Angeles wanted some lettering to go on a CD cover with a Rick Griffin image (the bug). This job came to me through Chet Helms of The Family Dog fame, whose approval was needed to use the bug image, which was on a Family Dog poster for Denver, 1968. He suggested that I do the lettering. I tried to design some lettering that went with the image of the bug. This is a promotional poster for the CD release. If you like The Doors and these bands This Cd sounds real good and some of this stiff sounds great.

Notes: When I designed this I was looking for a classic Rock'N'Roll look and They just wanted something that highlighted the bands so I used a classic what I call a ribbage idea with the bottle inside it and rapping around it. the bands were a problem they all wanted to be as big as Stone Temple Pilots. everyone concern like it.the second image is 6 feet x 3 feet Banner the nagitive space is to write in messages at retail stores, the third image is the T-

Sasquatch Festival, String Cheese Incident at George Amphitheater

Notes: I designed this for the SASQUATCH Festival in Washington State and gave it a snowy look with an Indian Arrow. I had intended putting Sasquatch tracks leading through the forest, but the promoters kept adding new bands, and time ran out - there are some small ones down in the bottom right hand snowy scene. I was under a lot of pressure to get this done quickly, and so I forgot to put "THE" in front of String Cheese Incident. That would have been enough to upset The String Cheese Incident and so the promoter thought it better to cancel the poster. A few years back I designed something for The String Cheese Incident, but they never got back to me or thanked me for my effort. I've talked to other promoters and apparently they're just another group trying to capitalize on the Grateful Dead left-overs. I'm not impressed! - anyway it would have been a nice poster.
