Viva Montesa
Notes: heavy black pencil drawing, SIGNED Mouse! 1965, on drawing-pad type paper. This drawing was recovered directly from Mouse's mother's house in Livonia, MI back in the mid 80's. Most of these early 60s formalized weirdo, hot-rod & monster drawings/figures were designs for models that were going to be produced by Monogram. They would get to this phase [final concept/pencil], get exposed to the public & used on T-shirts in Mouse's T-shirt catalog, then if it got popular, perhaps graduate to merchandising or get produced as a model.. [or ripped off by other imitators!], Anyway, most of the pieces in his Mom's basement were mildew damaged, but this is one of the few that emerged intact. Mouse was the foil to Big Daddy Ed Roth & his Rat-Fink empire... and they used to have "fueds" through their publications at Auto Shows & such.. Hawk commercialized on the terrain that Big Daddy & Mouse were "fighting" over when they came out with Weird-ohs, which were also merchandised, but mainly sold as figurines/models. Mouse went on to the Haight-Ashbury in the mid 60s and became a famous psychedelic poster artist doing posters for the hippie dance concerts at Bill Graham's Fillmore Auditorium & the Family Dog's Avalon Ballroom... later he partnered up with Alton Kelley to form Mouse! Studios & they produced many fine album covers, for the likes of Big Brother with Janis Joplin, Journey, the Grateful Dead, Frank Zappa & the Mothers of Invention, & Steve Miller. Along with Kelley, Victor Moscoso, Wes Wilson & Rick Griffin, Mouse was part of the 'Big 5' poster artists & they achieved some international fame & glory gracing the pages of LIFE Magazine etc... This is a classic early Mouse Hot-Rod Weirdo design. They do not show up too often anymore. -- J. Kastor

Human Be-In: Allen Ginsberg, Timothy Leary at Polo Grounds, Golden Gate Park

Notes: The "Human Be-In," a name coined by Michael Bowen for the event, which was held in Golden Gate Park, in the polo grounds. This poster was designed by Stanley Mouse and Michael Bowen, and printed at the Bindweed Press in San Francisco. The poster announced "A Gathering of the Tribes for a Human Be-In." This is considered, along with the Trips Festival, one of the key events of the era, an event that brought both the Beat element and the emerging Hippies together, sharing their cultures. The event was fashioned after the Hindu Festival Kumbha Mela, a non-sectarian religious festival held in India every 12 years. The Human Be-In was to be an American version of this kind of spiritual event.

The event was co-organized by Allen Cohen, the publisher of the San Francisco Oracle, and he featured the event on the cover of his publication. In attendance were all the high lords of psychedelia, including Baba Ram Das, Timothy Leary, Allen Ginsberg, Gary Snyder, and radicals Dick Gregory and Jerry Rubin, along with the Grateful Dead, Quicksilver Messenger Service, and many others - a true meeting of the minds. Radicals/Beats, Mind Trippers, and Hippies, all merging in a single event.

This is considered to be one of the high-water marks in the history of psychedelic posters. This poster is considered essential to any comprehensive collection of the posters of this era. It is very difficult to find. There were 500 originals printed.

Natal Chart

Notes: This is a pair of bi-fold cards, each like a greeting card [with (4) 5&1/2x9&1/2" pages on yellow stock] which were an individual 'artist biography', and part of the press promotion for the watershed art exhibition of the Psychedelic 60's in San Francisco... "THE JOINT SHOW", which opened to much fanfare on 7/17/1967, at The Moore Galleries. These artists by & large gained international fame around this period for their posters for rock dance concerts [Mainly at the Family Dog's Avalon Ballroom & Bill Graham's Fillmore Auditorium in San Francisco] & other graphics related to the underground psychedelic scene. Both did extensive work for many SF Bay Area bands, such as The Grateful Dead. The front of each gate-fold card features a close-up photo of the artist, in this case Victor Moscoso & Stanley Mouse, by rock concert artist & photographer Bob Seidemann. The interiors open to show additional artwork by the artist. Mouse's has a sort of inkblot abstract, and Moscoso's has a pair of drawings of cycling birds.. The back cover of Mouse's has his astrological chart & birth info, while Victor's has, a collage piece entitled, "self portrait". -- Jacaerber Kastor

Pigpen by Stanley Mouse

Notes: Very scarce, low-run 1986 silkscreen entitled "Red Experiment / Pig Pen" by artist Stanley Mouse, utilizing photo of the late Pig-Pen [Ron McKernan, keyboardist for the Grateful Dead], by noted 60's photographer Herb Greene. Actual photo of Pig was taken at the Matrix Club. The Heiroglyphic background [from a wall in Herb's apt.] was added in by Mouse. 20x26" on thick archival rag paper. Edition size is a mere 25 copies. THIS IS COPY # 10/25. [both of the images below are from an old jpeg of one print from this series that has already sold: #8/25..] The yellow/gold color in the scan is actually a more METALLIC gold. This silkscreen has very fine, rich colors. Mouse has signed this piece twice.. once in the white border/margin below the image & once in the black area at Pig's waist. In this print his signatures both come with his little mouse-head caricature drawn alongside..[unlike the one in the picture in which each signature is different]. The protective sheet of glassine that it comes with, has Mouse's "Running Mouse Serigraphy" logo embossed on it as well as the embossed logo of another silkscreen outfit from San Rafael,CA. -- Jacaeber Kastor
