

MAY & SETH RECORDING SESSION
February 13, 2011

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

On my trip up north this weekend my first stop was at the Neahtawanta Inn where my daughter May and her fiancé Seth Bernard (and their whole band) were recording a new album after their trip to Ethiopia. They had been there many days by the time I got there and had been up later night after night, so everyone looked pretty tired.

The studio they were in was spacious and lovely. Here is a photo from my visit mostly of May and Seth listening to playbacks and doing overdubs. The music sounded great.
