

POPPY REDUX
June 5, 2011

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

TWO PHOTOS ...'tis the Poppy season and I can't help but photograph them, so I hope you don't mind seeing them a second day. These are both hi-res and if you will download them (menu at your left when you expand the photo), you can really see them in detail.

They are like a scene from Dante's 9th circle of hell, beautiful and potent.
