

"SPIRIT GROOVES" TRAILER

January 12, 2013

No, I did not leave the planet. I have been busy scaling "Mt. After Effects" and just living, or trying to. This recent New Moon (Friday) was, in my world, a rough one, and it still does not feel to me like the New Moon is here yet. Nothing much has changed so far as I can see. Of course, right now I am not seeing too far anyway.

So, here is a movie trailer that I have to turn it real soon, so I hope you like it. I took all the comments from my family and Facebook friends, did my best to incorporate them, and here they are wrapped in a video.

It is short, and with new music that I like, submitted here for your consideration. Hope you enjoy it. Now I only have to do the actual series!!!
